

Compliance Checklist

Wildlife Displayer Permit (Commercial) (Class 4)

Limitations, restrictions and condition of permit
Activities undertaken comply with permit description	☐
Animals kept at approved premises specified in the permit	☐
Animals kept matches permit entitlement (i.e. specialist animals kept on Class 4 permit listed as permit endorsement)	☐
Activities undertaken comply with any permit endorsement	☐
Actions comply with any additional conditions listed on the permit	☐

Maintenance of records and provision of information
Record book kept at premises where animals are kept	☐
Record book, return book or copy of return kept in a safe and secure place	☐
Entries made in record book or return within 48 hours after the occurrence of transaction or event	☐
Loss or damage to record book, return book or return, or copy of return reported to Fauna Permits Unit	☐
Change of name or address - Fauna Permits Unit notified within 14 days of the change	☐
Completed return submitted to Fauna Permits Unit by 14 July each year	☐

Keeping, sale of protected animals, carcasses or eggs – Schedule 6 Basic and Specialist species
Sale or gift only to permit holder Note - A person may be entitled under the Act to keep a protected animal, or have possession or control of an egg of a protected animal, without a permit if (for example) the number of animals or eggs does not exceed a number permitted under the Act.	☐
Purchase or receipt as gift of protected animals only from a permit holder	☐
Advertisement for sale of protected animal to include permit number	☐
No sale of juvenile animals [Note: this applies to all protected and unprotected animals regardless of whether a permit is required]	☐
Sale of protected animals from approved premises specified in the permit [Note: sale from premises not specified in the permit must be approved by the Director before the sale occurs]	☐
Any protected animal purchased from a permit holder must be kept for at least 6 months before it can be sold	☐
No hybridization of protected animals [Note: this applies to all protected animals regardless of whether a permit is required]	☐

Preventing escape of protected animals
Cage or enclosure adequate in size and designed, constructed, located and maintained to prevent any protected animal from escaping	☐
Cage or enclosure is lockable (or otherwise secured against unauthorised access) for dangerous animals or those that are a biological hazard	☐
Protected animals available for inspection by a warden	☐

Transport of protected animals, eggs or carcasses and labelling of transport cages, containers or packages
Cage, container or package for protected animals - withstands transportation process - protects animal against injury and against other animals likely to injure or kill it - prevents the animal from escaping - resists unauthorised interference with the animal - allows adequate airflow	☐ ☐ ☐ ☐ ☐
Cage, container or package - protect the egg or carcass against damage or deterioration - resists unauthorised interference with the animal	☐ ☐
Label includes permit number (when protected animal transported by permit holder)	☐
Label requirements when transported by a third party carrier - name and residential address of owner of protected animal, egg or carcass - permit number (if owner is a permit holder) - common name of protected animal and number of animals, eggs or carcasses being transported	☐ ☐ ☐
Label requirements if the protected animal is dangerous, or if the animal, egg or carcass a biological hazard - name and residential address of owner of protected animal, egg or carcass - permit number (if owner is a permit holder) - common name of protected animal and number of animals, eggs or carcasses being transported - a statement that the contents of cage, container or package are dangerous or constitute a biological hazard	☐ ☐ ☐ ☐

Importing protected animals, eggs or carcasses
Import permit obtained prior to importation	☐
Consignment matches information stated in the Import permit	☐
Notify Fauna Permits Unit if importation details change (prior to importation)	☐

Exporting protected animals, eggs or carcasses
Export permit obtained prior to importation	☐
Consignment matches information stated in the Export permit	☐
Notify Fauna Permits Unit if export details change (prior to export)	☐
Export permit securely attached to transport cage, container or package	☐

This document is provided for the purposes of information only and is not legal advice. The Department and its employees do not warrant or make any representation regarding the use of the information contained in this document as regards to its correctness, accuracy, reliability, currency or otherwise. Neither the Department nor its employees accepts any responsibility for errors or omissions or for any decisions or actions taken by any person acting on the basis of the information contained in this document. The use of the information contained in this document is at the sole risk of the person using the information. All permit holders should ensure that they are familiar with the legislative and regulatory requirements relevant to their particular permits and circumstances and should seek independent legal advice if necessary.